

K-LOVE serves my community and myself in such an incredible way. One example is found in the encouragement received when I can relate to other listeners who have similar struggles. The music is uplifting and carries such strong and important values.